REPORT ON EMPOWERING MINDS CONDUCTED FROM 04/01/2021 TO 20/01/2021

"Empowering minds" suggests a mission to inspire and enable individuals to realize their full potential intellectually, emotionally, and socially. It implies providing tools, resources, and support to foster growth, learning, and self-confidence. This empowerment can occur through education, mentorship, access to information, and creating environments that encourage critical thinking and creativity. Ultimately, empowering minds is about giving individuals the skills and mindset they need to navigate the world successfully and make meaningful contributions to society.

The objectives of empowering minds can vary depending on the specific context and goals of the program or initiative. However, some common objectives might include:

- a. Promoting education.
- b. Fostering critical thinking.
- c. Building Self-esteem and confidence.
- d. Cultivating creativity and innovation.
- e. Developing leadership skills.

The outcomes of innovation and design are diverse and impactful, encompassing improvements in products, processes, experiences, and societal well-being. Here are some key outcomes:

- Outcomes:
  - a. Improved academic achievement
  - b. Enhances critical thinking
  - c. Increases self-esteem
  - d. Sustainable development and wellbeing

REPORT ON LABOUR LAW CONDUCTED FROM 17/08/2020-02/09/2020

Labour law, also known as employment law, governs the relationship between workers, employers, trade unions, and the government. It encompasses a wide range of legal topics and issues, including but not limited to employment rights, working conditions, collective bargaining, health and safety, and dispute resolution.

1. Employment contracts.
2. Worker Rights and Protection.
3. Health and Safety.
4. Anti-Discrimination.
5. Collective Bargaining and Trade Unions.

The objectives of labour law are multifaceted, aiming to balance the interests of workers, employers, and the broader society. These objectives include:

1. Protecting worker rights.
2. Regulating working condition.
3. Promoting Social Justice.
4. Facilitating Economic Efficiency.
5. Supporting Industrial Relations.

Labour law, when effectively implemented and enforced, can have significant positive impacts on workers, employers, and society as a whole. Here are some key outcomes:

● Outcomes:

1. Improved Working Conditions
2. Protection of worker's rights
3. These outcomes collectively contribute to the development of a fair, just, and productive society, benefiting not only workers and employers but also the broader economy and social fabric.
